Christina Berish acts as a legal advisor and trial counsel in commercial matters.

She has substantial experience handling all stages of litigation – both in and out of the courtroom – and has appeared in state and federal courts conducting pre-trial proceedings, trials and appeals. Some of her notable areas of representation have involved shareholder disputes, corporate valuation and dissolution, contract enforcement, employer-employee disputes, fraud and business torts and property litigation. Among other affiliations, Christina serves on the Chicago Bar Association's Judicial Evaluation Committee. Christina has been recognized by her peers in the Illinois edition of "Super Lawyers" (by Thomson Reuters) from 2009-2018 as a "Rising Star" and is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School. Her representative matters include:

Shareholder Disputes And Corporate Dissolution

Regularly represents majority shareholders and LLC members in breach of fiduciary duty, corporate valuation, and breach of contract proceedings.

Represented minority shareholder in breach of fiduciary duty and squeeze-out, resulting in favorable settlement.

Defended minority shareholder in arbitration against multi-million dollar indemnity claim, resulting in no liability.

Commercial And Business Litigation

Obtained jury verdict for employer against former employee after 6-day trial where employee sought additional alleged compensation.

Defended a transit authority's award of a $1.3 Billion railcar contract, resulting in the authority's award being affirmed.

Defended charitable gifts to higher education and religious entities in a will contest proceeding.

Obtained favorable settlement for public company in dispute with software vendor.

Defended alleged infringer in federal copyright case, obtaining summary judgment and a judgment for defense attorneys' fees.

Obtained injunction order for public company, requiring defendant to abide by parties' real estate contract.
