Dana represents clients in complex litigation in both state and federal courts across the country, as well as in consolidated and multidistrict litigations.

She is involved in all aspects of litigation on behalf of major corporations in a variety of industries, including telecommunications and biotechnology. Dana handles pretrial discovery matters, complex briefing issues, and assists with depositions and trial.

Before joining Thompson Coburn, Dana was a litigator at a leading plaintiffs' firm in St. Louis, where she worked on products liability and toxic tort litigations involving Fortune 500 pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies. Dana led e-discovery efforts, drafted high-stakes briefs, co-chaired depositions and managed a large trial support team.
