Justice (Fmr) Douglas Lang advises clients on litigation and appellate strategies and presents appeals for pending matters in jurisdictions across the country. He is the co-chair of Thompson Coburn's firmwide Appellate Group.

Justice Lang collaborates with trial lawyers across the Firm on effective appellate strategies for clients, working directly on filings and arguing cases before appellate courts. Since returning to private practice, Justice Lang has appeared in state and federal courts across Texas and presented appeals in federal circuit courts and at the U.S. Supreme Court.

Drawing on his over 16 years of judicial service and experience, Justice Lang provides prompt, strategic, and solution-oriented advice on potential or existing legal dilemmas for clients in a wide range of businesses and industries. Justice Lang served for 16 years on the Fifth District Court of Appeals in Dallas, a 13-judge appellate court with the highest case volume of the 14 intermediate appellate courts in Texas. While on the court, Justice Lang authored more than 2,200 opinions and participated in deciding more than 6,200 cases. During that same period, Justice Lang served for six years as a member of the Texas Multi-District Litigation Panel and as Chair of the Texas Commission on Judicial Conduct.

Justice Lang is renowned and highly respected for his tireless leadership in bar and community activities, his dedication to mentoring young lawyers, and his devotion to civility and ethics in the legal profession during his more than 40-year career. Justice Lang's belief in the importance of mentoring led him to author "Deeds, Not Words —Mentors As Guiding Lights of Integrity In The Legal Profession," a compilation of experiences recounted to him by a variety of bar leaders, judges, and successful attorneys. Among his leadership positions, he has served as President of the Dallas Bar Association, President of the National Conference of Bar Presidents, and Secretary of the American Inns of Court Foundation.

He has been recognized for his leadership with such awards as Texas Lawyer's "Texas Trailblazer" award for promotion of legal ethics and professionalism, and leadership in the legal profession; the Shalom Award for Civic Contribution; the State Bar of Texas' Presidents' Award for outstanding contributions to the legal profession; the Texas Bar Foundation's Lola Wright Foundation Award for outstanding public service in advancing and enhancing legal ethics; and a Citation of Merit from the
