Libby assists clients with a wide variety of business litigation matters.

She performs legal research, drafts and reviews pleadings and other documents, supports case management, and assists with client communications.

Libby earned her J.D. from Wake Forest University, where she served as Editor-in-Chief for the Journal of Business and Intellectual Property Law and competed in several trial team arenas. In law school, she also served on the board for the law school's Moot Court and was named to the Order of the Barristers upon graduation. Libby focused much of her studies on cybersecurity and privacy and earned her CIPP/US Certification in July 2017.
