Josh represents financial institutions as secured creditors in Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases, corporate restructurings and workouts, which he has done in bankruptcy courts from coast to coast.

He has particular experience in cash collateral and DIP financing matters, bankruptcy court sales, and UCC Article 9 matters including secured party dispositions. He frequently advises on bankruptcy and insolvency issues arising in the structuring and documentation of commercial lending transactions.

Josh has led presentations for firm clients and legal and industry groups on cash collateral and bankruptcy financing issues.
