Nino assists a broad spectrum of clients in state and federal courts in the firm's business litigation and financial restructuring & bankruptcy groups.

Nino handles high-stakes litigation involving contract disputes, shareholder disputes, creditor's rights, financial restructuring, class action defense and multidistrict litigation.

Nino relies on his extensive pretrial and trial experience in state and federal court. Recently, he first chaired a civil jury trial in the Eastern District of Missouri and obtained a $20,000 judgment on behalf of a state prisoner. Nino has argued before the Missouri Court of Appeals and engaged in motion practice in the Supreme Court of Missouri. He has also drafted briefing before the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation.

Nino regularly appears before trial court judges in Missouri and Illinois. He drafts and argues dispositive motions including motions to dismiss and motions for summary judgment. Not long ago, Nino helped obtain a large and favorable settlement in the St. Louis Circuit Court involving a shareholder dispute.

Prior to joining Thompson Coburn, Nino clerked for the Honorable Paul C. Wilson of the Supreme Court of Missouri.
