

Patrick Paterson

Associate

St. Louis
314 552 6215 direct
314 552 7000 fax
ppaterson@thompsoncoburn.com

PRACTICES

- Corporate & Securities

EDUCATION

- Washington University in St. Louis, J.D., magna cum laude, 2015, Editor in Chief, Washington University Law Review
- Claremont McKenna College, B.A. Philosophy, Politics, and Economics, cum laude, 2012

ADMISSIONS

- Illinois
- Missouri

EMPLOYMENT

- Thompson Coburn LLP
Associate, 2015-Present
Summer Associate, 2014

Patrick helps his clients through a range of corporate matters, including mergers and acquisitions, securities law compliance, and venture capital transactions.

He has extensive experience in all stages of the M&A process, from the first contemplation of the transaction through post-closing considerations. He manages the due diligence process, drafts and negotiates definitive purchase and ancillary agreements, and coordinates the closing.

Patrick also advises clients with respect to securities offerings, SEC filings and reporting matters. He analyzes exchange listing requirements and other securities disclosure issues, along with venture capital investments, corporate governance and general business guidance.

In his practice, Patrick focuses on finding business-oriented solutions to legal issues and helping clients achieve their commercial goals while navigating potential risks and emerging problems.

Publications

- "DOL's fiduciary rule levels playing field for advisors, imposes new duty on brokers"; April 2016