EMPLOYMENT

- Thompson Coburn LLP Partner, 2018-Present Associate, 2010-2017 Summer Associate, 2008
- The Boeing Company Government Contracts Specialist, 2005-2010

Scott represents government contractors in disputes with federal and state governments, including bid protests, Contract Disputes Act claims, and suspension and debarment proceedings.

Scott also assists a wide range of government contractors on compliance with Federal Acquisition Regulations and the DFARS, including drafting subcontract agreements, developing corporate policies, and negotiating with prime contractors, subcontractors or government agencies.

Prior to joining Thompson Coburn, Scott was a Government Contracts Specialist for The Boeing Company, where he led proposals and negotiations for major defense systems. In that position, he most recently led the negotiation for the U.S. Navy's Full Rate Production purchase of EA-18G Airborne Electronic Attack Kits valued at nearly $500 Million. Previously, he led contract efforts for F/A-18 mission computing systems, JDAM integration services, commercial items, and various development programs.
