Shaun represents clients in all types of complex business and commercial litigation matters in state and federal courts across Missouri and Illinois.

As a member of the Firm's Business Litigation and Banking and Financial Services Litigation practice areas, Shaun's primary practice focuses on the defense of large corporations and financial service entities facing fraud, breach of contract, and shareholder dispute claims at both the trial and appellate court levels. Shaun also has experience representing financial institutions in probate and fiduciary disputes, public authorities in condemnation actions, and medical providers in collection actions.

Shaun has experience deposing witnesses and leading in-depth discovery efforts. He is methodical in his research and writing and helps develop comprehensive strategies for assessing claims, drafting pleadings and responses and advancing a particular defense or strategy.

Before attending law school, Shaun served in the U.S. Army Reserves with the 620th Combat Sustainment Battalion. From 2009-2010, he deployed to Balad, Iraq, in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom with the 90th Sustainment Brigade, as an Intelligence Analyst for brigade-level operations in the Iraqi Theater.
