Steve has successfully litigated a wide variety of matters for more than 30 years, the last 15 of which have focused on intellectual property.

Steve tries intellectual property cases of all varieties - patent, trademark and copyright. Steve's experience in business litigation and product liability cases provides him unique insight into how intellectual property enforcement can impact product development and his clients' business interests. His aggressive approach to litigation positions matters for the best possible result. Steve has served for more than 20 years as the outside general counsel for a major St. Louis company, which has provided him with an appreciation of clients' concerns that goes beyond a typical trial attorney.
