

We're pleased to announce our free 2019/2020 Webinar series for Higher Education Administrators and Counsel

HIGHER EDUCATION WEBINAR SERIES

For the upcoming 2019/2020 academic year, Thompson Coburn's Higher Education Practice will be offering a series of free, monthly webinars focused on legal, regulatory, and policy issues impacting institutions of higher education. These webinars, each of which will be approved for Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credit, will touch on matters of significance for educational institutions of all types, large or small, public or private.

In advance of each monthly webinar, we'll distribute details regarding the specific material that will be covered, the background of the presenters, and the date and time. Additional thoughts and analysis relating to our webinar topics will also be posted to our higher education blog, REGucation. Below, we've set out the series schedule by topic.
