Drew Moore, Zoe Spector Join Chicago Bar Leadership Program

Thompson Coburn associates Drew Moore and Zoe Spector have been selected to participate in the 2024 Chicago Bar Association Leadership Institute, a program intended to help emerging leaders in the legal profession build relationships and leadership skills.

This program runs from April to June 2024 and will include sessions on topics ranging from foundations of effective leadership to advanced business development skills, as well as networking events. The institute's outstanding faculty will feature leading lawyers from the corporate, business, government, and private sectors. Katrina McGuire, managing partner of Thompson Coburn's Chicago office, will serve as the sponsor attorney for Drew and Zoe during their participation in the program.

Drew is an associate in the firm's Business Litigation practice group, and Zoe is an associate in the Labor & Employment practice group.

For any questions on the leadership program, please contact Norma Jackson, Chief Diversity & Attorney Development Officer.
