Matt Landwehr Elected to AIM Executive Board

TC partner Matt Landwehr was recently elected to serve on the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Associated Industries of Missouri (AIM). Matt was elected to the Board of Directors in 2023.

"Matt Landwehr was nominated for service on the Executive Committee after demonstrating his deep commitment to improving the Missouri business environment," said Ray McCarty, president and CEO of Associated Industries of Missouri. "Matt is always willing to share his time helping educate others and advocating for Missouri taxpayers and we are proud to have his talents supporting our organization in this key role."

AIM is Missouri's oldest, premier business association, and its mission is to promote a favorable business climate for business, manufacturing and industry by empowering members through communications, education and advocacy before the legislature, administrative agencies and the public. AIM's Membership includes many of the Firm's clients including, but not limited to, Charter/Spectrum, Spire, Enterprise, BNSF, Holcim, and Mastercard. Thompson Coburn is also a member of AIM. AIM provides its members the most-experienced lobbying team in the state, a statewide member communications network, educational events and seminars, cost-saving member programs, and dedicated staff support and consultancy. For more information on AIM, click here: Associated Industries of Missouri \(voiceofmobusiness.com\).

Matt and other Thompson Coburn attorneys regularly serve on AIM's committees and present at AIM's annual conferences. Thompson Coburn has worked closely with AIM for many years to advance the interests of the Firm's clients.

Matt also serves as Chairman of the AIM Tax Committee, a group of more than 200 tax professionals in accounting firms, tax law firms, in-house accounting personnel and CFO's in businesses that are members of Associated Industries of Missouri.
