Milada Goturi Discusses Best Practices for Addressing HIPAA Violations with Healthcare Risk Management

Thompson Coburn partner Milada Goturi was quoted in Healthcare Risk Management on best practices for addressing noncompliance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). She noted that it's critical to stop any further breach if a HIPAA violation is discovered and to implement improvement in policies and procedures to prevent a recurrence.

"You want to demonstrate voluntary compliance, and that's done by promptly addressing the issue, making the corrections, making updates to the procedures if needed, ensuring that the patients are timely notified, and ensuring that the staff is educated," she said.
