Navigating HR Issues during the COVID-19 Emergency

Webinar

The COVID-19 public health emergency has drastically changed nearly every aspect of life, and some of its most obvious and far-reaching effects are being felt in the workplace, both by employers and their employees. Join Thompson Coburn's HR practice group for a discussion of the legal issues associated with COVID-19-related employment legislation and other related employment and employee benefits issues associated with the current national public health emergency.
