I bring a tailored approach to my work on M&A, securities compliance, and other corporate matters. I work closely with clients to understand their businesses and provide insightful, customized solutions that fit their current and long-term needs.

overview

Allyson Coyne provides corporate clients with practical solutions in mergers and acquisitions, securities compliance, and a wide range of corporate matters.

Allyson has experience representing public and private company clients in all aspects of M&A transactions, including the acquisition and disposition of stock and assets, leading M&A due diligence and drafting definitive purchase and ancillary agreements.

In her securities compliance work, Allyson assists clients with continuing reporting requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as well as advising on governance trends and exchange listing requirements.

Allyson's corporate practice also includes a variety of general corporate and transactional matters, including establishing new business entities, preparing organizational documents, and reviewing and drafting commercial contracts. Allyson enjoys collaborating with clients to document commercial transactions while providing creative and effective legal solutions to protect clients' interests while meeting their business needs.

In addition to her corporate practice, Allyson assists clients with transactions related to tax credit and incentive programs such as New Markets Tax Credit transactions and Low-Income Housing Tax Credit transactions.

Allyson's previous experience includes working at a boutique law firm in Chicago, where her practice focused on M&A transactions, commercial transactions, and financing.

in my free time

I enjoy playing tennis, attending rock concerts, traveling, and studying history, especially history related to places where I've traveled. My favorite bands to see are the Rolling Stones and Fleetwood Mac, and my favorite travel destinations are the United Kingdom and France.
