

Angela

Angela C. York
Chief Facilities & Administration Officer

ayork@thompsoncoburn.com

St. Louis
D - (314) 552-6388

EDUCATION

Whether it's making sure a client event is executed to perfection or a new office is ready to open for business, I strive to bring the most value and quality to every firm initiative.

overview

Angie York leads firmwide strategic oversight and operational management of events, facilities, and administrative functions and establishes procurement policies and procedures to ensure efficiency, top-notch value, and service.

In her role at the helm of all facilities operations, Angie drives efforts to promote sustainability, streamline practices, and ensure security across the firm. With a keen eye for detail, she optimizes workflows and implements innovative, cost-saving solutions in office operations, facilities, vendor relations, purchasing, and numerous other areas.

Angie works closely with the Chief Operating Officer in designing and implementing innovative solutions to streamline operations, reduce costs, and enhance workplace environments. She also manages the event staff for all internal and external events, ensuring that they are executed seamlessly and meet the needs of attorneys and clients.

Angie's excellent communication and leadership skills make her a key contributor to the firm's ongoing success.

in my free time

I enjoy perfecting new recipes, exploring the open water while boating, and spending quality time with my mini goldendoodles, Marco and Vinny.