

I aim to provide clear and practical advice on real estate matters, with the goal of a smooth transaction.

overview

Chad Burchard represents clients in a variety of real estate transactions with a focus on the purchase, sale, and leasing of properties. He has experience in title examination and resolving title issues and works to ensure smooth transactions for his clients.

Before joining Thompson Coburn, Chad worked as an associate and contract attorney with firms in Indiana and Kentucky, where he represented clients in all phases of real estate transactions.
