Drawing on my strong technical accounting background, I am well-equipped to efficiently understand and assist clients with complex tax and corporate matters.

overview

Clayton Voss is a tax attorney who routinely assists clients with complex tax and corporate matters. Clayton's practice focuses on helping clients navigate and understand the tax implications of corporate transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, liquidations, distributions, redemptions, and reorganizations.

Clayton has experience in structuring corporate transactions to minimize tax impacts. He frequently reviews purchase agreements and advises transactional attorneys on related tax issues. Clayton has also represented clients in connection with federal and state tax audits, protests, and settlements.

Additionally, Clayton has experience with the purchase and sale of transferable tax credits, analyzing and helping clients comply with the nuanced requirements of state tax credit programs nationwide.
