I leverage my knowledge of complex financial products and regulatory frameworks to deliver strategic, results-driven counsel, combining analysis with a client-centric approach to navigate state, federal, and appellate matters.

overview

Hayden Farmer is an associate in the Business Litigation practice group.

Hayden has extensive experience drafting and arguing motions, appeals, and dispositive briefs at the state, federal, and appellate levels on behalf of financial services institutions and corporate entities.

in my free time

I enjoy spending time outside of the office at Riverside of Central Park with my fiancée and dog. I also enjoy golf, reading, and traveling throughout Europe.
