overview

Janki Patel is an associate in the business litigation practice, where she represents clients in state and federal courts and in arbitrations in various complex matters, including shareholder disputes, class actions, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty and fraud.

Janki advocates for clients by drafting motions, briefs, and memoranda. Additionally, she analyzes complex documents and researches legal issues that develop trial strategy. She also manages all aspects of discovery, including written discovery, assisting with depositions, and managing document production and review. In addition, she works directly with a variety of individual and corporate clients to develop case strategy and negotiate favorable settlements.
