I love being part of “the answer” in health care. With the awareness that health care does not afford the opportunity to get it right all of the time, I approach issues with the goals of preventing, detecting, and correcting.

overview

Lee Decker is a dedicated strategic advisor with deep experience in health care regulatory compliance.

She has practiced law for over 30 years, with more than 20 years of experience in the health care industry. Lee is a trusted counselor with experience in health care regulatory compliance, government investigations, physician contracting, potential violations of fraud and abuse laws, including Stark Law and anti-kickback statute, and billing and reimbursement issues.

Lee previously served as vice president and chief compliance officer for Novant Health, a large health care system in the Southeast, after serving in the company's legal department as assistant general counsel for over a decade. She also was associate general counsel for North Carolina Baptist Medical Center. Additionally, as outside counsel to those in the industry, Lee has assisted health care clients in regulatory compliance and corporate governance matters, contract negotiations, and business issues. She is a trusted advisor, providing value through practical and efficient solutions.

in my free time

I love to cook, run, and spend time outdoors, and I may like pickleball, but that is still up in the air. But it is sailing that sets me free. Totally unplugged and at the whim of the winds, sailing on a 45-foot monohull with my husband (and sometimes we invite the kids) reminds me that “it's not the destination, it's the journey”! And, more importantly, if something hasn't gone wrong, then you haven't left the dock!
