EDUCATION

I am a skilled and experienced professional in the firm's labor and employment practice.

overview

Mark Derouin has in-depth knowledge and experience in a range of legal issues related to the workplace as a labor and employment practice area specialist.

His work has included issues related to employment contracts, wage and hour compliance, discrimination and harassment, wrongful termination, labor relations, and more.

in my free time

I am a huge fan of podcasts, specifically "Armchair Expert," "The Ezra Klein Show," "Philosophize This," "The Daily," and "Making Sense with Sam Harris." I love to read many different genres. Some of my favorite authors are David Sedaris, Dave Eggers, Chuck Palahniuk, and Tom Robbins, and I also enjoy reading current philosophical papers.
