I am passionate about immigration law and dedicated to providing comprehensive legal guidance and representation to businesses, institutions of higher education, and individuals navigating the complexities of U.S. immigration law and global mobility issues.

overview

Martha Mendez-Fischer is an experienced immigration lawyer dedicated to helping clients hire and retain foreign talent in the U.S. and transfer employees between international offices.

Martha advises large multinational corporations, emerging growth companies, higher education institutions, and individuals in immigration law matters and global mobility issues. She also counsels and represents individuals in a variety of family-based immigration, naturalization, and citizenship issues.

A trusted and practical lawyer, clients choose Martha to help them navigate the complexities of U.S. immigration laws and global mobility issues. She has extensive experience with all major employment-based nonimmigrant visa and immigrant visa categories, including H-1B, TN, L-1A, L-1B, E-2, E-3, B-1/B-2, O-1, J-1 waivers, PERM Labor Certification, EB-1, I-140, adjustment of status, and physician immigration matters, as well as family-based immigration, naturalization, and citizenship.

in my free time

I am an enthusiast of world cuisines and love trying new restaurants and discovering new dishes from various cultures. I also enjoy traveling with my family and exploring new cities within the continental U.S., other countries, and cultures. I find joy in gardening, nurturing plants from seed to bloom. I love creating vibrant, green spaces that bring beauty and tranquility, whether cultivating flowers for their color and fragrance, or herbs and vegetables for fresh, homegrown produce. Similarly, I enjoy floral design, creating arrangements to surprise family and friends on special occasions.
