overview

Sarah Larson is a trusted advisor to corporate clients, guiding them through the complexities of mergers and acquisitions, securities law, and corporate governance. With a broad range of experience, she offers strategic counsel on everything from entity formation and commercial contracts to sophisticated M&A deals on both the buy and sell sides.

In addition to her corporate expertise, Sarah represents institutional investors, helping them navigate investments in private funds, including hedge funds, private equity, and hybrid funds. Her deep understanding of SEC reporting, governance trends, and exchange listing requirements also makes her a go-to resource for public companies looking to stay ahead in an ever-evolving regulatory landscape.
