Legal issues can be overwhelming, challenging, and difficult to understand and approach. I believe it is imperative that when helping clients I should be compassionate, understanding, clear, attentive, and positive.

overview

Sylvia Turner helps clients build and protect their brands and other valuable intellectual property. She counsels on intellectual property issues, including trademarks and copyrights.

She assists with trademark selection, registration, maintenance, and enforcement. She has also assisted with trademark opposition and cancellation proceedings domestically and globally. She regularly drafts agreements relating to the intellectual property rights of our clients, including settlement agreements, license agreements, assignment agreements and more.

Sylvia also has intellectual property litigation experience, including assistance in federal court litigation for trademark matters and proceedings at the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.

Sylvia is a registered patent attorney with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. With a background in biology, she supports clients in a variety of industry sectors.

in my free time

I like to spend time with my daughter, travel, and host. While I am not a big cook (or a very good one), I love to gather friends and family together, so I spend a lot of time organizing weekend hangouts, get togethers, parties, and holidays. I enjoy seeing everyone in the same room having a great time and making memories.

While I haven't been able to travel much since welcoming my daughter, some of my favorite trips include sailing in Greece, snorkeling in St. Maarten, and driving ATVs through Aruba. While St. Louis seasons are beautiful, nothing beats a beach.
