overview

Viviana Hedrick is a versatile litigator, handling diverse legal issues from business complex commercial and real estate disputes to class actions and trade secret matters. Undaunted by a courtroom, she prosecutes and defends cases in state, federal, and appellate courts nationwide.

Understanding that business goals are paramount in both threatened and active litigation, Viviana implements practical solutions to effectively prevail on behalf of her clients. She successfully tries bench trials and first-chairs jury trials.

Viviana's expansive practice includes resolving disputes involving allegations of fraud, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, products liability, free speech, trade secrets, consumer finance, false advertising, and real estate disputes.

Clients rely on Viviana's sophisticated guidance from matter inception through resolution. She skillfully drafts and argues substantive motions and counsels clients on liability exposure, methods for mitigating damages, and settlement.

I am an avid reader, from historical fiction (I love all Kristin Hannah books) to autobiographies (Viola Davis' "Finding Me" is a must-read!).
